

narrative-confusion(s)

Francis Bacon: truth comes more easily out of error than out of confusion ...

story / life(s) / fight(s) / room(s) / literary animal []

narrative-ethic(s)

... although (these) innovative scientists aren't conducting science as it is usually understood, they believe, that humanists ought to play the knowledge game according to the ethical rule(s) that apply throughout ... science(s) ...

story / life(s) / fight(s) / room(s) / literary animal []

narrative-math(s)

story / life(s) / fight(s) / room(s) / literary animal []

narrative-mind(s)

... the mind is a narrative machine, guided unconsciously by the epigenetic rules on creating scenarios and creating options ...

... the narratives and artefacts that prove most innately satisfying spread and become culture ...

story / life(s) / fight(s) / room(s) / literary animal []

narrative-science(s)

- repeatability of observation(s) – experiment(s)
- economy – simple explanation(s)
- mensuration – adequate measurement(s)
- heuristic(s) – stimulating new inquiries
- consilience – connected with (other) discipline(s)

story / life(s) / fight(s) / room(s) / literary animal []